Ms Lydia Smith,

Thank you for the congratulatory email from the CTA. This new innovative and collaborative initiative came about as the result of the Police Services Board business plan of identifying the need to enhance victim support.

We know the likelihood of a victim recanting is directly linked to the level of support they receive.

Through this collaborative partnership with Cornerstone, Cobourg Police officers now have at their disposal a team of experts that will support victims, provide us with education and provide a different perspective on domestic violence and sexual assault investigations.

I could not afford to hire staff in-house with the experience and expertise that Cornerstone brings.

I am privileged and blessed to have a Board that demands innovation and sound financial stewardship of public funds and an Executive team that embraces the Board's demand.

Regards,

Kai Liu
