Another All Candidates Meeting

In the evening of September 27, at the Salvation Army Hall on Ballantine Street, the Northumberland Affordable Housing Committee will sponsor an all candidates meeting. Affordable housing, while an important issue, is mostly a County and Provincial one. It will be interesting to see how the candidates respond. Time and further details to follow.

A Simple Question for Candidates

Ben Burd, formerly on Cobourg Council and the creator of the Burd Report, has asked all eleven candidates to answer the question: “Why do you want to be on Council?” He has also asked for their ideas. Visit his website at <http://burdreport.ca/> for the answers and also for ongoing coverage of the campaigns.
