IT'S TIME FOR A FRESH PERSPECTIVE

Emily Chorley is running for Cobourg Council to build a local government that values and listens to all of us – young people, working families, zoomers, seniors and newcomers.

MY VISION To preserve the natural beauty, historic character, and small-town charm of our community, while responsibly managing tourism, enhancing infrastructure and encouraging economic growth.

MY MISSION To humbly listen and boldly act on innovative ideas.

MY VALUES I believe in fostering a culture of community that is inclusive, that welcomes diverse perspectives, and that unites people in a shared vision of a vibrant, attractive and sustainable Cobourg.

ABOUT EMILY

Emily grew up in Northumberland County, working alongside her parents on municipal projects involving floral displays, lighting and bicycle lanes. She attended high school in Cobourg, where her politics teacher inspired her to pursue an interest in public policy. As a specialist in international politics, she spent seven years working in the UK, briefing officials from governments and organizations such as the United Nations. In 2012, her growing family sparked a desire to return home to Cobourg. "My husband and I want to give our kids the happy childhood I experienced growing up here." Emily continues to work as a policy analyst, while volunteering with vulnerable families and assisting community groups on Council-related issues. "As a Councillor, I would bring my unique combination of local knowledge and global experience to serving the residents of Cobourg."
